SEAN N. McGOEY

Richmond, VA | 504-756-8202 | seanmcgoey1@gmail.com | Website | Twitter | LinkedIn

JOURNALISM/MEDIA

Richmond Times-Dispatch: Data Reporter (January 2022 – present)
Reporting on local and state stories, conducting data analysis, and producing infographics for Richmond's daily newspaper.

International Consortium of Investigative Journalists: Editorial Fellow (January 2021 – December 2021)
Part of the reporting and data teams for the Pandora Papers investigation. Host, produce and edit the "Meet the Investigators" podcast and write stories for the ICIJ website. Part of the Scripps Howard Foundation's Roy W. Howard Fellowship program.

Capital News Service: Data and Graphics Reporter (September 2020 – December 2020)
Reporting on data-based stories for student-powered newsroom covering Maryland and D.C. news. Data analysis, infographic design, and website layout for stories from Annapolis and Washington bureaus. SPJ Region 2 Mark of Excellence Awards winner for story on broadband access in Maryland.

Howard Center for Investigative Journalism: Data Reporter/Graphics Designer (June 2020 – August 2020)
Multi-school investigative reporting project on COVID-19's effect on evictions and homelessness. Built Python scrapers to download eviction data from county court websites and R scripts to analyze data. Created infographics and produced stories for web presentation. Project won SPJ DC Pro Dateline Award for Online Non-Breaking News and SPJ Sigma Delta Chi Award for Collaborative Journalism.

It's Pretty OK: Co-founder/Co-host (February 2016 – present)
Co-host of weekly podcast about millennial life. 310 episodes published to date.

WWL-TV: Web Producer (August 2014 – December 2014)
Managed high school sports website for local television station. Built user-generated content network from local high schools and launched branded social media accounts. Wrote web stories on local interest topics for station's website and posted video clips from newscasts to site.

Freelance work published in C-Ville Magazine (Charlottesville, Va.), The Diamondback (College Park, Md.), Greenbelt News Review (Greenbelt, Md.), Source of the Spring (Silver Spring, Md.), and others.

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Merkle Inc.: Senior Specialist, Media Services (2015 – 2019)
Managed digital advertising campaigns. Analyzed digital efforts of Super Bowl advertisers and covered industry developments for company blog.

Gannett: Editorial Consultant / Summer In-Residence Fellow (June 2014 – April 2015)
Summer internship in digital product design, developing mobile products. Created content and social media for mobile trivia game based on current events. Adapted online news content into quizzes.

EDUCATION

M.J. in Multiplatform Journalism, University of Maryland (December 2020)
B.A. in Economics, minor in Computer Science, University of Virginia (May 2014)

SKILLS

Audio: Proficient in Adobe Audition. Experienced at hosting, producing and editing podcasts.
Content management: Experienced with Squarespace, WordPress and custom CMS systems.
Data analysis: Excel, Google Analytics, R, SQL. Some Python.
Graphic design: Experienced with Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop, Datawrapper, Flourish, Carto.
Web development/design: Intermediate experience with CSS and HTML. Some C3/D3.
Writing: AP style, copy editing, data journalism, investigative reporting.